To access the current version of the Rules and Regulations (R&R) document, visit our website www.watergateatlandmark.com. Hover the mouse over the Residents tab and move the mouse down to Resource Documents. Move your mouse over and click on Governing Documents. There, you can download or read the R&R document. Hard copies can be made available for $5 at Resident Services.

UNWANTED FOOD ODORS

Make sure your kitchen fan works properly. Every time you cook, be sure to turn it on! This helps funnel the air to the proper outside areas and rather than into the hallways or into other units. Thank you!

COMMUNITY CENTER AREAS ARE SHARED SPACES

This is a reminder that residents and guests must follow the WAL rule governing behaviors in common spaces in both the Community Center and Residential Common Areas:

"No disruptive or unsafe behavior or activity shall be carried on within these areas nor will anything be done which may be or become an annoyance or cause harm to other residents. Running, screaming, riding of wheeled recreational equipment, ball playing/bouncing and horseplay are considered unsafe and an annoyance within these spaces and are therefore not permissible. The lobbies, vestibules, hallways and stairways shall be used for no other purpose other than for normal transit."

NEED CASH FAST?

We encourage everyone to use the ATM conveniently located in the Community Center. A portion of the fee ($3) supports your Association operations!
